

The Greater Kansas City Federal Executive Board Presents

Six Core Competencies of Leadership

Leadership Training Webinar

This dynamic Leadership Development WEBINAR is six-part series presented LIVE and online in a convenient, user-friendly, time-managed format.

May 9 – 10, 2022

$369/person

As a proven training program for the next generation of federal leaders, it's programmed to enhance the developmental pathway of the entire workforce – including managers, supervisors, and key employees. The class addresses two-thirds of the Leadership Skills identified in OPM's 'Executive Core Qualifications' – preparing the participants to be successful at work and advance their careers.

Jerry Strom delivers an energizing, and penetrating program designed to help you meet today's leadership challenges. 'Six Core Competencies of Leadership' is widely acclaimed for its content, presentation style, and depth. Thousands of federal employees have attended, and over 98% have recommended it for their peers.

Webinar Special Notes!

This LIVE Webinar is formatted so that busy teleworking employees can get the training they need, while still having time to do their jobs and manage their households.

This is a series of individual sessions which are separated by convenient breaks.

(Note: Times are in Central Daylight Time ... Please adjust for your Time Zone)

MONDAY – May 9

Series Overview: "Introducing the Six Core Competencies of Leadership"

Welcome, Orientation and Overview of the two-day series.

10:00 a.m. to 10:15 a.m. CDT

Session 1: "The Leadership Foundation is Built on Personal Growth and Credibility."

When a leader's agenda emphasizes continuous learning the entire organization benefits. This session helps identify the value of a healthy leadership mindset, and mental perspectives which renew the energy, creativity and focus of the agency.

10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. CDT

Session 2: "Learning that Real Leaders are the Ones Who Take Action."

Accomplishing the strategic initiatives, goals, and the mission of the agency is dramatically improved when leaders demonstrate an action bias, making change possible, while working through uncertainty and solving problems.

12 Noon to 1:15 p.m. CDT

Session 3: "Leaders See the Future and Share the Vision."

It's a leader's responsibility to see beyond their immediate circumstances and express a longer view. When the power of vision is released, organizations make significant progress toward meeting the evolving needs of its customers.

2:15 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. CDT

TUESDAY – May 10

Day-Two Overview: "Making the Most of This Time and These Principles."

Thoughts from Day 1, Warm-up and Overview of Day 2.

10:00 a.m. to 10:15 a.m. CDT

Session 4: "Leadership Means Investing Your Time and Energy into People."

The greatest leaders have learned that their time and energy is well-directed when they focus on bringing out the best in the people around them, and giving them opportunities to participate, innovate, and succeed.

10:15 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. CDT

Session 5: "Your Character Says More about Your Ability to Lead than Any Other Talent."

'Who you are' goes well beyond 'what you do.' People whom you seek to lead, will first decide if you can be trusted – evaluating your character, values, and ethics. True leaders understand their 'self' and make conscious choices for substance over style.

12 Noon to 1:15 p.m. CDT

Session 6: "Communication Links Leaders and Their Followers."

Accomplished leaders lead from the front, middle, and back of the pack. Healthy, two-way communication is essential to keep up momentum and motivation and makes a significant impact on your effectiveness with others.

2:15 p.m. to 3:15 p.m. CDT

Series Wrap-Up: "Moving the Six Core Competencies of Leadership Forward."

Making the most from this developmental experience. Submitting your work and getting your certificate.

3:15 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. CDT
