MONDAY – July 18

Series Overview: "Introducing Lead-in to Leadership"

Welcome, Overview and Orientation.

12 Noon to 12:15 p.m. HST

Module 1: "The Leadership Foundation is Built on Personal Growth and Credibility."

When a leader's agenda emphasizes continuous learning the entire organization benefits. This session helps identify the value of a healthy leadership mindset, and mental perspectives which renew the energy, creativity and focus of the agency.

12:15 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. HST

Module 2: "Learning that Real Leaders are the Ones Who Take Action."

Accomplishing the strategic initiatives, goals, and the mission of the agency is dramatically improved when leaders demonstrate an action bias, making change possible, while working through uncertainty and solving problems.

2:00 p.m. to 3:15 p.m. HST

Module 3: "Leaders See the Future and Share the Vision."

It's a leader's responsibility to see beyond their immediate circumstances and express a longer view. When the power of vision is released, organizations make significant progress toward meeting the evolving needs of its customers.

3:45 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. HST

TUESDAY–July 19

Day-Two Overview: "Adding to Your Competencies."

Thoughts from Day 1, Warm-up and Overview of Day 2.

12 Noon to 12:15 p.m. HST

Module 4: "Leadership Means Investing Your Time and Energy into People."

The greatest leaders have learned that their time and energy is well-directed when they focus on bringing out the best in the people around them, and giving them opportunities to participate, innovate, and succeed.

12:15 p.m. to 1:30 p.m. HST

Module 5: "Your Character Says More about Your Ability to Lead than Any Other Talent."

'Who you are' goes well beyond 'what you do.' People whom you seek to lead, will first decide if you can be trusted – evaluating your character, values, and ethics. True leaders understand their 'self' and make conscious choices for substance over style.

2:00 p.m. to 3:15 p.m. HST

Module 6: "Communication Links Leaders and Their Followers."

Accomplished leaders lead from the front, middle, and back of the pack. Healthy, two-way communication is essential to keep up momentum and motivation and makes a significant impact on your effectiveness with others.

3:45 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. HST

WEDNESDAY–July 20

Day-Three Overview: "Making the Most of This Time and These Principles."

Thoughts from the Core Competencies Day 1 and 2, Warm-up and Overview of Day 3.

12 Noon to 12:15 p.m. HST

Module 7: "Building Relationships"

Leaders who try to go it alone seldom accomplish much. Fostering relationships throughout the organization elevates performance levels, enables collaboration, and energizes commitment. Relational skills allow leaders to be trusted, respected, and followed.

Part 1 – 12:15 p.m. to 1:00 p.m. HST

Part 2 – 1:15 p.m. to 2:00 p.m. HST

Module 8: "Establishing Communication"

Getting people on the same page is a trait of effective leaders. Their communication abilities make them persuasive – providing positive influences that resonate with the workforce. Strong communication helps people believe in the leader, the mission, and one another.

Part 1 – 2:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. HST

Series Wrap-Up: "Putting These Ideas to Work."

Making the most from this developmental experience. Submitting your work and getting your certificate.

3:30 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. HST
